FOR YOU, BECAUSE OF YOU, THANKS TO YOU.

Chatsworth Challenge 2019

Dear Gerard,

Thank you for your very generous donation of £2280

Every two minutes someone in the UK is diagnosed with cancer, but there's no need to fear if we all work together to cure cancers quicker.

The generosity of supporters like you and the people who take part in your fantastic event for the Dave Owens and Frank Goodall Memorial Fund enables Cancer Research UK to lead the world in discovering and developing newer, kinder treatments and to get closer to cures.

You're helping to fund over half of all cancer research in the UK, and you are part of the reason that we've been able to double survival rates in just 40 years.

You do a brilliant job organising this event Gerard and because of people like you, one day we will beat cancer. Thank you for helping us make it sooner.

Yours sincerely,

Vikki Bassek

Dear Gerard,

A big thank you from Macmillan

Thank you so much for raising an absolutely incredible £2,280.00 for Macmillan through the Chatsworth Challenge. Please pass on our thanks also to HSBC for their generous matched funding donation of £280.00. We really value your ongoing support which will help us to be there for people affected by cancer and help them to feel more in control of their lives. Your amazing donation could for example pay for a Macmillan Nurse for over two weeks and we can't thank you enough for this.

How your money helps

The money you raised will help fund vital services to support people affected by cancer and their families. So when they're facing a difficult time, they can start to feel more in control.

For example, Macmillan Clinical Nurse Specialists (CNSs), and nurses with similar roles, treat and manage patient's health concerns and work to promote health and wellbeing. They use their skills and expertise in cancer care to provide physical and emotional support, coordinate care services and to inform and advise patients on clinical as well as practical issues.

Thanks to supporters like you, In 2018, we reached an estimated 880,258 people affected by cancer through our Macmillan Nurses.

Thank you again for being part of the Macmillan team.

With best wishes

Dear Gerard,

Thank you so much, you are amazing.

We were so delighted to receive your donations totalling £2280.00. Your fundraising efforts are just amazing, and we are so grateful to you supporting Marie Curie Nurses. If you are continuing with your fundraising or have an active fundraising page don't worry just get in touch with us and we will send you out a new certificate with the total raised when you are ready.

Every day of your life matters, whether it's the first or the last. If ever faced with a terminal illness, most of us would choose to die peacefully, in our own homes, surrounded by the people that mean the most to us. Our nurses make this possible, caring for people and supporting their families during an incredibly difficult time.

Your money is already helping people like Chris. Chris received a terminal diagnosis and wanted to be at home with wife, Sarah, and his two children. Marie Curie Nurses were able to grant that wish. Chris was able to spend his final days with his family, in the comfort of his own home. And Sarah found this support invaluable too, as she had felt overwhelmed and unable to cope with providing care around the clock in addition to looking after two children.

The money you've raised will help us to care for more people like Chris and Sarah, providing expert hands-on care, practical and emotional support when it's needed most.

On behalf of our nurses, and the people and families they care for, we really cannot thank you enough. Your donations make such a difference, and we are so grateful for your generosity and support.

With my warmest wishes and greatest thanks,

James Battle
